MINNIS SUPPORTS MARIJUANA SOON TO BE LEGAL!

BN Agent, X

Statement by Prime Minister Minnis on expunging records for small possession of marijuana is our PM new approach on how he feels we should deal with weed moving forward. The government is moving in the direction of legalizing marijuana according to the minister of national security and with election being only (2) two years away, it's only a matter of time before this law is passed.

supports expunging the records of Bahamians convicted of possession of small amounts of marijuana. "They deserve to move on with their lives free and clear of a criminal conviction." Read full statement:

Prime Minister Minnis

Statement by Prime Minister Minnis on expunging records for small possession of marijuana

A week ago I expressed support for decriminalising the possession of small amounts of marijuana and making the substance legal for medicinal and scientific purposes.

Our laws regarding the possession of small amounts of marijuana have unfortunately led to the arrest, prosecution, conviction and punishment of many Bahamians.

Some of these people have been burdened with criminal records, making travel and finding work more difficult.

Reforming our marijuana laws and changing how we treat people with small possession convictions is a matter of social justice.

I support expunging the records of Bahamians convicted of possession of small amounts of marijuana. They deserve to move on with their lives free and clear of a criminal conviction.

I eagerly await the release of the report by the Bahamas National Commission on Marijuana. My Government will use the report's findings to help reform our marijuana laws.

Part of this reform should be expunging the records of Bahamians convicted of possession of small amounts of marijuana. Being from the Over-the-Hill community, I have seen firsthand how our current laws especially harm young people from modest backgrounds.

The Commission's findings will be widely circulated and we welcome the input of Bahamians as we make these long-needed changes to various laws.

A Rehabilitation of Offenders Committee has been formed and is reviewing a number of matters for recommendation, including the possible expunging of some criminal records for possession of small amounts of marijuana. We will also take into consideration the recommendations of this committee.

With all of this street violence going on you would think that grown up/adults would take heed to foolishness and be wise when others are not. WRONG! Sometimes they be the main ones causing the mess in the first place

Take a look at this clip that happened this weekend at 40/40 club on Carmichael Road. Two men were in an argument which other said started from earlier when one of the men pulled out a gun and banished it at the next, well it became after a while. But as soon as both men faced each other again tension grew again but this time, onlookers had a camera and was able to capture the entire incident.

What started off as a tongue lash, quickly turned into a "i'd but ya in your head with a hot Guinness" and it sure did turn into that swiftly. From the first swing was a head bashing bootle breaker we knew this fight would soon be over and these two cats will be waring for some time to come. Well the fight came to an end after the gun slanger decided to let go of the rasta locks, as they both were parted. But who knows where we may buck these two once more? Only time will tell.

UNDER THE RUG

DRUG BUST TERMINATED X-PRESS IT?

Sometimes, the weirdest things can happen right under your nose and if your not paying attention, you will miss it.

BN Agent, X

Rumor has it the once loved X-press it, actually had a lot going for it last year until some of their workers got suspected of moving illegal drugs through there shipping process. Yes shocker right, well here's what made the great change to the company, today they go by the name Blue ____ . But last year the extremely famous quick turn around shipping company was under watch by DEU and DEA.

Apparently some of the workers of the booming company thought it would be a genius idea to ship A1 LOUD weed through there shipping portals by using different methods to get this home grown lab weed into the country and believe us when we tell you they were extremely successful at this. For months this shipping method was being used by particular key staff members, who were able to bring in LOUD that cost the locals a pretty penny, were talking a joint could run you into $25 bucks just for one smoke. Talk about having that good good dank. Well as time passed DEU got word on the LOUD ring and begin to investigate. Over time they were able to get there hands on the key persons through intelligence and was able to make a soft sting arrest.

All of this was kept hush hush as time passed, certain persons got dealt with by the law and the company continued to move forward, while also changing their name rebranding there entire company from Xpress it to Blue____. Some rumors still linger around saying that, people in the company still have their hands in the weed importation industry, but those are just current rumors, nothing factual as yet has been presented to our BN agents.

BONGIE OF THE DAY IS AWARDED TO THE MOTHER WHO GOT PRANKED

AIN'T NOTHING CAN TOP A SUCCESSFUL PRANK!

BN Agent, X

A mother got pranked over the internet last week from her clever kids and husband when she came home after a long day of work. She is our bongie of the day because she fell right for this one perfectly.

From the fake tears to, the mean mug, they had her eating out of the palm of there hands. The skit was quite entertaining if you ask us, even the oldest son could of gotten a Bahamian Icon Award with his performance. But nothing topped the father who said he was still in the room after busting all of their hips, that was classical. The father could of won an Oscar, he was in character throughout the full recording, even when she tried to calm the situation down, he still kept the big boy pants on in the situation.

Overall the prank was 5 star, but the mother really should of sense something was up, but hey sometimes those mother senses don't be kicking right, especially not after a long day of work!

12% VAT CAN TURN INTO 15% CASUALLY COME 2020

BN Agent, V

So there you have it hmmm! We don't know if to call this genius or SlickThinking on the Government side. But we get it, it costs more to produce a penny and therefore it only made sense to eliminate it from our currency. Now don't get us wrong we have seen thousands of Pennies thrown on the ground outside of so many stores locally.

But come January, the creation of the penny will stop, however the penny will still be accepted until December 2020. Readers should take note of this and get rid of all your pennies now.

What could be a chilling truth is that the VAT would also be affected with an increase with this new penny rule. It's being told that if your VAT is over the middle mark which is 3 cents it rounds off to the nearest 5, making it now 15 cents you will have to pay, so in not so many words hello 15% VAT but if it is under the 3 cents mark its supposed to round off to 10 cents total VAT but we need more clarity from the government on this penny rule and VAT.

Now the Bahamas is not the first country to make such a change in currency. Other nations have likewise taken out the lowest denomination. We demand that the government explain this subtle increase of the VAT because without pennies circulating VAT now goes up by 3 cents.

act quickly to resolve this issue. With the change of Minister of Immigration BN sure thought Ellsworth was the iron man of steel ready to take the raging bull by the horns and bring changes. Still today we wait to see what the Minister is good for. The Haitians are multiplying and are becoming aggressive and our Government must send a strong message of non inclusions or entitlement.

Is our Government getting it or are they also on the payroll? Shortly after the Hurricane there were many rumors of Haitians relocated to Andros and nothing was done. Now today in the midst of the Bush a structure is going up.

How much longer before the Government acts upon the Intel received? With scores of Bahamians trying to acquire their home the Government of this Commonwealth must
